Disclosures on two first class licensees located along North Main street were made in city court this morning by William Burke of Graniteville, who pleaded guilty to an intoxication charge after having been arraigned before Magistrate H. W. Scott as an habitual. A fine of $15 and costs was imposed, but the respondent chose the alternative jail sentence. Barre campers at Lake Caspian in Greensboro this summer are observing with interest progress being made on a summer home which Winthrop Daniels of Washington, D. C., is building. It is to be one of the finest summer homes on the lake shore and is located on a spot known to many outing parties as Birch point. Mr. Daniels is connected with the interstate commerce commission, and has long been favorably impressed with Greensboro as a site for a summer home.

On the building alone he plans to expend more than $40,000 and improvements about the premises will probably bring the cost up to a much higher figure. It is expected that the house will be ready for occupancy within a short time.

Barre police and the local sheriff's department have been enlisted in an effort to locate George Robinson, an elderly man with a flowing beard, who is said to have created a considerable disturbance in Williamstown this morning. Constable Norman J. Pratt of that town came to Barre to-day and interested men at police headquarters in his inquiry as to the whereabouts of Robinson. Recently, it is said, Mrs. Robinson returned to Vermont from an extended stay in Texas and went to the home of relatives in Williamstown for a visit. Sometime last night or early this morning, according to the authorities, Robinson reached Williamstown, seemingly bent upon inducing his wife to return to him. The information is given that the couple have been separated for 25 years and that when Robinson approached the house where his wife is staying, she hid from him. The authorities also claim that Robinson procured a shotgun on the premises and that the weapon figured conspicuously in gesticulations performed by the man. Before officers could reach the house Robinson had disappeared without carrying into effect any of the threats alleged to have been made by him.
